

Salesman & Sales Manager

Paintbutchers

2018-06-14

Paintbutchers is a graphic design agency with a wide range of different designers and creators. Our main goal is to deliver quality designs at a reasonable price and to make graphic design as easy as possible to get. Today our team consists of 2 enthusiastic creators from Sweden with experience in Graphic design, Web development and entrepreneurial. As we have expanded on social media rapidly for a while now, we have also realised that our team is too small to maintain our high quality standard. Therefor are we searching for about 5 salesmen and a sales managers who can join us soon.

As a salesman your responsibility will be to search for clients, evaluate their requests and be the companies responsible for each project. To help you on the way, we have developed our own order management system which is very easy to get used to. During a project you will have to push the project forward and have a pretty good understanding in what state a project is in. As an “employee” you will get paid a monthly amount as well as a certain percentage of the incomes from the projects you are in charge of. This will be future disgusted if you feel interested in this type of work.

As a sales manager your responsibilities will be to manage our salesmen and help them out if the get stuck in a project etc. You will also contribute with ideas on improvements when we do our monthly meeting (management and leaders). You will have the opportunity to work as a salesman as well if you want to earn some extra money as well as your monthly pay. You will have a lot more insight in the sales department of the company and will hopefully take more space in the company by coming up with ideas and suggestions on how to grow the company etc. As help in your work, you will have a more detailed version of our order management system where you will be able to see which projects that are running slow etc.

If any of these positions seems interesting to you, do not hesitate to contact us.

We would love to have an interview with you over on Discord or Skype etc where we will explain more and you will be able to ask if you have any questions. To apply simply send us an email at contact@paintbutchers.com with your contact info and a small text (optional).
